In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers:

Telephone the most convenient NewFirst location.

Your account branch information and the main office telephone number are provided on the front of your statement.

Write us at: NewFirst National Bank P.O. Box 470 El Campo, Texas 77437

As soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- (1) Tell us your name and account number.
- (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- (3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Quick Cash Statement

If you think your statement is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on the statement, write us (on a separate sheet) at the address printed on the top of this statement as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

If you question a charge on your Quick Cash account, you do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of the bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question. You can telephone us, but regulations require a written communication to preserve your rights.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly.
